

Paediatric BASIC

Paediatric Basic Assessment and Support in Intensive Care

Held at ManCEL (Manchester Centre for Experiential Learning) 3rd and 4th May 2016

This course written by experts in Paediatric Intensive Care and run internationally is directed to staff working in paediatric intensive care and is suitable for those involved in the stabilisation of ventilated children awaiting transfer or further management, including staff in adult critical care and acute hospitals dealing with ventilated children.

Target audience:

- Trainees in Paediatric Intensive Care
- Senior nursing staff in paediatric Intensive Care
- Advanced Practitioners
- Anaesthetic and Critical Care trainees interested in paediatric critical care

- Senior emergency medicine and paediatric trainees
- Consultant staff interested in intensive care management
- Education practitioners wishing to revise understanding and develop training modules for local use

Consultant Faculty

Ben Lakin (Alder Hey)

Sarah Mahoney (Alder Hey)

Kate Parkins (NWTS/Alder Hey)

Suzy Emsden (NWTS)

Rajesh Phatak (NWTS / RMCH)

Mahil Samuel (RMCH)

Sharmila Gopiseti (RMCH)

Course fee £300 for consultants, £200 for trainees and Advanced Practitioners, £150 for nurses – includes course manual and lunch.

Rajesh.phatak@cmft.nhs.uk or melanie.lowe@cmft.nhs.uk

