

Manchester Symposium on PERIoperative Medicine

Following the successful and popular Manchester Preoperative Study Day held in June 2013, we are now pleased to announce the Manchester Symposium on PERIoperative Medicine. The programme is a Multi Disciplinary Meeting with Lectures and Workshops.

Venue:
ManCEL
8th Floor, West Point,
501 Chester Road,
Manchester, M169HU
Friday 12th
September
2014

Topics for Lectures and Workshops include:

- Preoperative Assessment/ Optimisation
- Enhanced Recovery after Surgery
- Topical Issues/ Advances in Perioperative Care
- Advances in Perioperative Pain Management
- Cardio Pulmonary Exercise Testing
- Cardiac Output Monitoring
- Difficult Airway Management
- Risk Stratification and Predicting Outcomes
- Emergency Surgery

It is mainly aimed at:

- Consultants in Anaesthesia and Intensive Care
- Trainees in Anaesthesia/ Junior Doctors in Surgical Specialities
- Specialist Preoperative Nurses
- ODA/ ODP (Operating Department Practitioners)
- Recovery Nurses.

To be applied for 5 CME Points from Royal College of Anaesthetists

Places limited to 50 only

Further Details will be announced soon

Course Fee

Consultants £100.00
Trainee Doctors and Nurses £40.00

Contact

john.A.Prince@manchester.ac.uk
Julie.laing@cmft.nhs.uk

Course Organisers:

Dr Swamy Mruthunjaya, Dr Anand Rajasekaran, Dr Umakanth Panchagnula, Dr Sujesh Bansal, Consultants in Anaesthesia, Central Manchester University Hospitals.